

Workflows in NOMAD

Fawzi Mohamed,

Fritz-Haber-Institut, Berlin, Deutschland

Thursday May 23, 9:30, Room MED 0 1418

Abstract:

NOMAD CoE explored the issue of archiving and making the data of calculations performed by others available for Big Data analysis and visualization. Data representation has a crucial role in addressing this problem. For this purpose we developed the NOMAD MetaInfo. In this talk we present how we did use it to represent workflows, and the challenges we had in recognizing the workflows.